EARLY RELEASE OF CIVIL SERVANTS' YEAR-END PAY

The Ministry of Finance confirms that civil servants will receive their final salary payment for the year today, ahead of the Christmas holidays.

The early release of salaries is intended to assist civil servants and their families in meeting their financial commitments during the festive season, while also supporting economic activity across the country.

The Minister for Finance, Commerce and Business Development, Hon. Esrom Immanuel, expressed his appreciation for the dedication and professionalism shown by civil servants throughout the year, noting their critical role in delivering essential public services and advancing national development priorities.

In extending his well wishes, the Hon. Minister conveyed warm Christmas greetings and wished all civil servants and their families a safe, joyful, and prosperous New Year.

The Government further advises that the next scheduled salary payment for civil servants will be on 8 January 2026.

The Government remains committed to prudent fiscal management while ensuring timely and reliable remuneration for public servants, particularly during significant national and cultural occasions.
